Told in Entertaining Manner to Parish House Association by Mrs. L. W.

There was a large attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Parish House association, held in the Osgood Memorial on Friday afternoon. The president, Mrs. H. T. Arnold, presided. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Elizabeth Trumbull read her report. Mrs. Symington reported on the society's finances and Miss Amy Cogswell upon the decorations now be-fees charged for money orders issued on the society's finances and Miss Amy Cogswell upon the decorations now being in progress upon the chapel. An especially interesting programme was enjoyed.

There were four violin solos by Miss Irene Gregson. He gave Twilight Idyl. Parade, Iris, and a Love Song, much to the delight of his audience. Miss Eunice W. Park of Stafford Springs was also heard with much pleasure in four songs which showed a fine contraito voice. Her selections were Knowest Thou That Fair Land, from Mignon; When the Roses Bloom; Just For Today; and I Love You Truity. Mrs. Charles H. Haskell was her accompanist. Another grand attraction was the talk by Mrs. Leonard W. Bacon upon her experience during the three years she spent in Europe.

Mrs. Bacon gave a picturesque account of her journey across the Atlantic and the thrilling excitement of a thunder storm which used the ship's lantic and the thrilling excitement of a thunder storm which used the ship's Marconi system as a lightning rod. Landing at Antwerp, she gave deft descriptions of her sensations and en-tertainment here with glimpses of the cathedral, Rubens' works and the mu-seum. Ghent, Bruges, Alx la Chapelle had interesting historical associations. All Belgium had curious milk jars and

All Belgium had curious milk jars and carts. At Cologne came the journey up the Rhine, past castles and vine-yards, visiting the museum at Mainz, the university at Heidelberg, the wonderful clock and the angel's pillar at Strassburg in Alsace, and then to Berne. Two years in this republic, among the mountains, were spent at Lausaine on Lake Leman, made beautiful with flowers. A trip to Italy gave impressions of Rome and Milan, given in an original and picturesque way. The journey ended with a visit to the realm of the kaiser and a detailed account of the special interest he takes in the daily life and comfort of each individual subject as shown of each individual subject as shown by the rules and regulations in Ber-lin and Dresden. During the afterby the rules and regulations in Berlin and Dresden. During the afternoon many fingers were busy with sewing for two missionary boxes soon to be sent to families in the west.

Chocolate and cake were served at the close by the social committee, Mrs. Coster Wilson, chairman, Mrs. George L. Ingalis and Miss Laura Subert.

Mrs. Ingalis and Miss Annie E. Vaughn

Harvie Mims, William Derrieux and Laurens Bentz, entered the church, taking their stand just outside the sanctuary. Then entered the brides-maids, Miss Kate Cullum, Miss Blanch Simmons, Miss Lydia McAllister, all attired in pink chiffon over pink messaline, wearing black picture hats and carrying pink bride roses. After the bridesmaids came the maid of L. Ingalis and Miss Laura Subert. Mrs. Ingalis and Miss Annie E.Vaughn presided at the tea table.

There's the sign that's getting to be common thing in America.

Corporations are retiring men at 50. They are not hiring any over 40.

A baided man often looks 10 years of her than he is.

A man with gray hair always does. It is important nowadays that a man look as young as he is; it is vastly important that a man having a family dependent upon him should take care of his hair.

If you have dandruff—get rid of it by killing the germs.

If you hair is falling out—stop it. If your hair is turning gray—don't waste any time.

There is one sure remedy that will cure these misfortunes and ald you to remain young.

Parisian Sage, the great Hair Restorer, is guaranteed to permanently remove dandruff in two weeks,or your money back.

Parisian Sage stops falling hair—it prevents the hair from turning gray.

There will be a small gathering of a few of Miss Crosby's relatives and some of her most intimate friends for the observance of the anniversary.

Miss Crosby was born in Lisbon, Conn., Jan. 14, 1811, being the second child in a family of nine children. She has one sister living, Mrs. L. M. Davison, of Brooklyn, Conn., aged 94 years, and one brother, Martin W. Crosby, also of Brooklyn, aged 85. She has two nephews, Edward Davison, of New Britain, and Henry Crosby, of Danielson, and three nieces, Mrs. N. C. Hunt, of Chaplin, Mrs. H. P. Cornell, of Providence, and Mary A. Crosby, of Brooklyn. She has an adopted niece, Mrs. Julian Griggs, of Columbus, O., and a grandniece, Mrs. O. R. Witter, of Hartford.

For the past twenty-five years Miss Crosby has lived in Chaplin, where she has a wide acquaintance, and holds the esteem of the townspeople. At the age of 20 she joined the Congregational church in Lisbon and has since been a faithful church supporter in the different places in which she has lived. She is now a member of the Congregational church in Chaplin.

Miss Crosby retains her faculties so that she enjoys life and the events of the day, on which she keeps well posted and thoroughly conversant. The visit of the census taker last fall was a call which Miss Crosby took much interest in, she making it an occasion for securing about as much information as the census taker did.
